

HOW CAN YOU AFFORD NOT TO

Patronize our Saturday Sale? Probably you do; then you may wonder how we can afford such values as we do on these days—the one below for example. Simply this way—Many times we secure from the manufacturers a special price to close up a big lot. We snap them up and mark them at a price that will close them all out in a day. We turn the stock in a few hours and yours is the opportunity to save from 40 to 50 per cent on the purchase. How can you afford not to benefit by these sales? We know you do and we believe you appreciate it.

Mrs. Gay held a whist party last evening with a few of her friends at the home of Mrs. Bond on Jefferson street. Mr. Gay and Mrs. C. N. Wales got the first prize, and George Gimstead and Miss Florence Tubbs contented themselves with the booby. Light refreshments were served.

Edward Peple's comedy, "The Prince Chap," now enjoys the distinction of being a big international success. At the Criterion theatre in London, the production is now in full swing, the engagement has been extended, extra matinees are being given each week, and the demand for the piece in England is such that an extra company is rehearsing for a tour of the provinces. It is very likely that a third company may be required to fill the English dates. The original production, as seen at the Madison Square and Weber's theatres, New York, with Cyril Scott as the star, will be presented by manager W. N. Lawrence at the Barre opera house next Tuesday evening.

There will be a special communication of Granite Lodge, no. 35, F. & A. M., Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Work, M. M. degree. Per order W. M.

SPRING SUITS

Ease and grace are distinctive features of our new Spring models in Sack Suits. The display in our window shows the smart effect of the long slightly rolling collar, the hint of form-fitting at the waist, the strong lines of the front and back of the Coat. We show the new models in a big variety of fancy fabrics (many of them patterns you'll not find elsewhere), also our ever reliable blue and black fabrics. Price $7.50 to $18.00.

YOUTHS' SUITS

bought especially for the young fellows. The strong, youthful lines will make them the premier favorites with the almost-men boys about town who favor a genuine college model in Suit. We have these handsome new Suits in all the new grey shades and patterns and in our ever reliable blue and black fabrics.
